Description:

About the Author When it comes to entertaining, enlightening and educating, no one compares to Michael Baisden. He began attracting attention with primarily female followers as author and publisher of the highly successful provocative books: Never Satisfied: How and Why Men Cheat,

Men Cry in the Dark, The Maintenance Man, and lastly God's Gift to Women. Two of his titles ultimately were adapted into stage plays. Later, Baisden founded the Michael Baisden Foundation focusing on education, literacy and technology. Michael believes that books change lives and he is living proof! Michael continues to entertain, enlighten and educate as he pursues one of his first dreams, to have his novels adapted to major Motion pictures. The other dream was to host a Late Night Talk show. He got that chance in the fall of 2007, when he partnered with TV One to host and co-executive produce Baisden After Dark, featuring comedian George Willborn and band leader Morris Day. The show was a smash hit, breaking records for viewers on the network. In 2011, Michael expanded his media reach when he produced, wrote, and directed a ground breaking documentary film titled, Do Women Know What They Want?
